

RRSPs or RRIFs

Gifts of retirement plans are made when you name Health Sciences North Foundation as the beneficiary. This means that upon your death Health Sciences North will receive the proceeds and your estate will receive a charitable receipt. This receipt will counterbalance your final tax return, transforming any final tax liabilities you have when you die into a charitable gift.

We urge you to consult a professional advisor to explore these and other planned giving options.

Source: www.leavealegacy.ca

